

8th annual human rights film festival

APRIL 6-8, 2018

College Avenue Commons (CAVC) Auditorium
660 S College Ave, Tempe, AZ 85281

Free and open to the public

Conversations with filmmakers, activists, and scholars following most films

Light Rail to Veteran's Way/College Avenue Station

Parking at Fulton Center Parking Structure (free Saturday and Sunday) or on street

humanrights.asu.edu

f theasuhumanrightsfilmfestival

ASU Arizona State University

Friday 4/6

4:00-6:30 Water in a Toxic World

- 4:00 RiverBlue (52 min)
5:00 Discussion on the Fashion Industry and Sustainability
- Tracey Martin, author, Sustainable in Stilettos
- Rachel Macias, USAS-ASU
5:30 Water Warriors (22 min)
6:00 Discussion on Activism to Protect Water Resources
- Sandy Bahr, Sierra Club
- Zoe Stein, ASU Sustainability student and activist
6:30 Reception at Pitchforks and Corks

Saturday 4/7

12:00-3:00 Impacts of Colonialism and Strengths of Indigeneity

- 12:00 Colonization Road (48 min)
1:00 Mud – Hashtl'ishnii (9 min)
1:15 Short Break
1:30 Keep Talking Niugaa Yugaa-Language is Life (80 min)

3:30-6:30 The Global Refugee Crisis

- 3:30 Human Flow (2 h 20 min)
6:00 Discussion (Speaker TBD) (35 min)

Sunday 4/8

9:00-12:00 Dismantling Borders

- 9:00 El Mar la Mar (95 min)
10:40 Short Break
10:50 Dismantling Borders, Recovering Humanity (37 min)
11:30 Discussion: City of Surprise Youth Council

12:30-3:30 Beyond Incarceration

- 12:30 Out of State (1 h 22 min)
2:00 Skype with Out of State Director Ciara Lacy
3:00 Path of Freedom (10 min)
3:10 Discussion on Prison Privatization, LUCa

Sponsored by Justice and Social Inquiry and the School of Social Transformation ASU co-sponsors: American Indian Studies, Amnesty International ASU, ASU Libraries, Center for Indian Education, Indian Legal Program (Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law), Office of American Indian Initiatives (President's Office), School of International Letters and Cultures, School of Sustainability, and United Students Against Sweatshops Community co-sponsors: AZ Humanities, Defend our Future

Visit humanrights.asu.edu and our Facebook page