

The Garden Pool

Dennis McClung

President and Founder of Garden Pools, NPO

In 2009, Dennis McClung bought his first home in Mesa; it came with a big, broken pool. He converted the empty pool into a closed-loop, food-producing urban greenhouse. In the process, he inspired a community and created a nonprofit organization dedicated to researching and teaching sustainable ways of growing food.

In this talk, McClung will tell the story of Garden Pool and how a single idea can transform the way we think about growing food.
