

Building Community through Youth Entrepreneurship

Pape Samb

*Chairman, Global Youth Innovative Network (GYIN)
President, Exleadmen International Consulting*

Samb leads GYIN, a youth-run network of over 5,000 young leaders, entrepreneurs, innovators, and farmers in 100 countries. He uses the 3S Approach (Synergy, Sustainability, and Success Stories) to build social enterprises, for-benefit enterprises, and self-sustainable, community-led programs around the world.

In this talk, Samb will discuss his experiences in Africa and demonstrate how people motivated by social aims can steer the emergence of a new model of sustainable communities.
