

the wrigley lecture series on sustainability

Why We Hate the Oil Companies

John Hofmeister

CEO and Founder, Citizens for Affordable Energy, Washington, D.C.

John Hofmeister is a business leader who has participated in the inner workings of multiple industries for over 35 years. He retired as president of Shell Oil Company in 2008 to found and head the nationwide nonprofit group, Citizens for Affordable Energy. This public policy education firm promotes sound energy security solutions for the nation, including a range of affordable energy supplies, efficiency improvements, essential infrastructure, sustainable environmental policies, and public education on energy issues.

His global corporate experiences across a wide range of both energy-consuming and energy-producing companies have led him to consider environmental security in the 21st century differently from mainstream practice.

Wednesday, November 18th 2009 | 12:30pm

Global Institute of Sustainability Room 101

Seating is limited, and reservations are required.
Please RSVP to: WrigleyLectureRSVP_Hofmeister@asu.edu
Reception to follow