

Swimming Upstream: How to Reduce Homelessness in Tempe's Emerging Urban Setting

David V. Summers

Senior Pastor, Tempe United Methodist Church

Kim Van Nimwegen

Director, Urban Outreach

Urban Outreach, a program of the Tempe First United Methodist Church, provides vital support services to homeless and working poor people of Tempe with the goal of helping them move from crisis to stability. They offer food, shelter, showers, medical, mental and spiritual resources, as well as coordinating care with other organizations.

Donations of razor blades, towels, men's work clothes, and toiletries in support of the Urban Outreach program are greatly appreciated.

Wednesday, July 27, 2011
12:00–1:30 p.m. (lunch will be served)

Wrigley Hall, Room 481

RSVP link: Download any free QR-Code reader app to your smart phone. Scan this code and it will take you directly to the RSVP page.

RSVP: sustainabilityevents@asu.edu

Parking and directions: sustainability.asu.edu/directions

For more information about this and other events, visit sustainability.asu.edu/events

This talk is co-sponsored by the School of Politics and Global Studies.

The Sustainability Series is presented by ASU's Global Institute of Sustainability.