

Stories and Action to Sustain the Southwest Foodshed

Hai Vo

Co-Founder, Real Food Challenge

Community Organizer and Research Fellow, Live Real

Hai Vo is a young scholar seeking food justice within his lifetime. He is a community outreach fellow with the California Food and Justice Coalition and organizes with Live Real, an organization harnessing the power of young people to transform the food system in policy and practice. Hai is the 2009 recipient of the Earth Island Institute's Brower Youth Award for his efforts with the Real Food Challenge, a campaign to increase sustainable-food procurement at colleges and universities.

In this talk, Hai Vo will use storytelling and graphic facilitation to identify local needs and resources that will help sustain the foodshed around ASU.

Friday, February 11, 2010

12:00–1:30 p.m. (lunch will be served)

Global Institute of Sustainability, Room 481

RSVP link: Download any free QR-Code reader app to your smart phone. Scan this code and it will take you directly to the RSVP page.

RSVP: sustainabilityevents@asu.edu

Parking and directions: sustainability.asu.edu/directions

For more information about this and other events, visit sustainability.asu.edu/events

The Sustainability Series is presented by ASU's Global Institute of Sustainability.