

Understanding the American Fire Scene

Steve Pyne

Regents' Professor, School of Life Sciences

Shaun McKinnon

Reporter, The Arizona Republic

Join us as wildfire expert Steve Pyne and The Arizona Republic's Shaun McKinnon discuss the Wallow Fire in Arizona and other recent U.S. wildfires and consider their ecological and economic impacts.

Steve Pyne is a Regents' Professor in ASU's School of Life Sciences and the author of a score of books, mostly on the history and management of wildland and rural fire. He is currently researching a fire history of the U.S. from 1960-2010.

Shaun McKinnon covers water, climate and environmental issues for The Arizona Republic.

The Global Institute of Sustainability's Case Critical series responds to time-sensitive sustainability concerns at the local, national, and global level. Experts swiftly mobilize for solution-based discussions focusing on the environmental, social, and economic implications of high-stakes threats and breaking news issues.
