

Copenhagen, Schwarzenegger, a Merchant Bank, and Pallets: What Do They Have in Common?

Craig Cogut

Co-Managing Partner and Founder, Pegasus Capital Advisors

Craig Cogut has over 27 years of experience in private equity investing, financial restructuring, and legal advisory service. In 1995, he founded Pegasus Capital Advisors, a private equity-fund manager that provides creative capital and business solutions to middle-market companies across a variety of industries, with emphasis on businesses adopting sustainable business practices. In 2008, he was honored by the New York League of Conservation Voters for his efforts in support of sustainable businesses.

Monday, November 9th 2009 | 12:30pm

Global Institute of Sustainability Room 101

Seating is limited, and reservations are required.
Please RSVP to: WrigleyLectureRSVP_Cogut@asu.edu

Reception to follow