

Allies for the Anthropocene

Spring 2018 Dialogue Series

A monthly conversation about thriving in the Anthropocene, featuring innovative thought leaders from ASU and beyond

“Planetary Management for Sustainable Global Futures”

Peter Schlosser

University Professor of Global Futures

Vice President and Vice Provost of the Global Futures Initiative at ASU

February 16, 2018

PSF-Wing Student Success Center (1st Floor)

Peter Schlosser is the Vice President and Vice Provost for Global Futures and the University Global Futures Professor at Arizona State University where he holds appointments in the Schools of Sustainability, Earth and Space Exploration, and Sustainable Engineering and the Built Environment. Schlosser's research focuses on the hydrosphere, primarily the circulation of water in the oceans, continental surface waters, and groundwater including studies of problems caused by human impact. He is Chair of the International Study of Arctic Change, a member of the Earth League, the American Geophysical Union's Development Board, and the Board of the Sustaining Arctic Observing Networks. He serves on numerous national and international science planning, steering, and advisory committees. He is a member of the German National Academy of Science, and Fellow of the American Geophysical Union, the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the Explorers Club. He joined ASU from Columbia University, New York, where he is the Ewing-Worzel Professor Emeritus of Geophysics in the Department of Earth and Environmental Engineering and Professor Emeritus of Earth and Environmental Sciences. He also has been the Deputy Director and Director of Research of the Earth Institute and the founding chair of the Earth Institute faculty.

Meet & Greet/Refreshments from 5:00 - 5:30 p.m.

Dialogue from 5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

We look forward to seeing you there!

RSVP at planetworks.asu.edu/events