

Genetic Roulette: The Health Gamble of Our Lives

Jeffrey M. Smith

Author, "Seeds of Deception"
Non-GMO Food Advocate

Many researchers and advocates argue that genetically engineered foods (GMOs) are a major contributor to rising disease rates in the U.S., especially among children. In this talk, learn about the health risks of genetically engineered foods, how to avoid them, and where exactly your food comes from.

Jeffrey M. Smith is the creator of the new documentary, "Genetic Roulette: The Gamble of Our Lives." Smith has lectured in 30 countries and has been quoted by world leaders and hundreds of media outlets.

Co-sponsored by GMO Free Arizona, The Urban Farm, Changing Hands Bookstore, and The Institute for Responsible Technology.
