Cuba: Unlocked and on the Edge of Rapid Transitions

March 3 – March 11, 2018

Learn about Cuban culture and explore the framework of a circular economy during a week in exotic Havana, Cuba. Visit organic gardens, a coffee plantation and Fusterlandia, and spend a day volunteering in the Mariano neighborhood. See firsthand the impacts of tourism and reflect on these discoveries as you and your classmates strive to develop solutions to challenges the Cuban people are facing as a result of the influx of tourism.

Program Fee: $2,665

The program fee includes: housing in homestays, visa processing, breakfast and dinner daily, orientation activities, site visits, cultural events, in-country transportation, ASU faculty support and international health insurance.
